Six households, one thing in common: Eleanor, the cleaning lady. But their routine might get turned upside down...

In Salerno, days go by, but no two are the same for Eleanor. Between her job as a cleaning lady and her twin teens, she has no time for la dolce vita.

Above all, Eleanor can't manage to forget Marco, from whom she recently separated. At least tidying for others takes her mind off! But when she enters their private, intimate spaces, she will soon realize appearances can be deceiving, and her well-oiled routine might well get turned upside down... Will what she's always dreamed of become reality? What if fortune were about to reshuffle the deck for a new deal?
