A dash of Friends, a pinch of Shakespeare, and an evil cat spice up this hilarious roommate comedy!

Intellectual Julia is depressed at having to live with her brother Baptiste, a rugby player whose six-pack has caught the eye of Pomme, budding influencer one floor up, who'd liked to get rid of her roomie Cerise by sending her to live with Estéban, the professional slacker on the ground floor. That's when Amine shows up, the world's most diligent student, who crushes hard on Julia... that is, until Pomme sticks her nose in! One building, three apartments, six students: between friendship, love, surprising and consuming passions, this living situation full of humor and poltergeists will win over readers of every stripe.
