An epic about sticking together!

This is the first time 13-year-old Jacinthe has run away. It's almost a rite of passage! She's brought along her bunny. Once in Geneva, she tries to find her father, but he's not picking up. What has she come all this way for, if he doesn't want to see her? The bus driver sees how upset she is and lets her sleep in the bus. But in the morning, she wakes to find her rabbit has chewed through the wires, shorting out the entire electrical system...
