This graphic novel invites readers into Boris Vian's offbeat world that Penograf captures perfectly with his astonishing and colorful illustrations.

Count Adelphin Finelookin and his loyal friend Serafinio Alvaraide are at Baroness Wetherbed's party when his "forked barbarine" is stolen while he's distracted by drink and other guests. Assisted by the Major Loostalo, they embark on a comical, somewhat fantastical mission to retrieve the mysterious object. Their investigation takes them from Paris to Borneo, braving floods of toad's blood and killing people with alacrity. Trouble dans les Andains is Boris Vian's first novel.

This graphic novel has originally published in Czech by Labyrint.
