A joyous and celebratory story of girl power!

Mireille, Astrid, and Hakima don't conform to conventional beauty standards. At their middle school, they get called the "sausage girls"... When they find out their paths are to fatefully intersect at the president's house, their summer seems all planned out: why not bike all the way to the garden party at the Élysée, selling sausages along the way? The three girls take in the country roads of France on an odyssey of cheese-eating and gatecrashing dress balls and châteaux, feeling truly alive.

An adaptation of Clémentine Beauvais' best seller, who sold 130,000 copies in France and was published in 15 languages
