A playful "search-and-find" approach to cleverly explore the disappearance of ecosystems.

Lemur swings from branch to branch in the jungle. Suddenly, the vine he's holding fades and he falls to the ground.

Who's that? It's his friend Tiger. The jungle is gone!

Together, the two friends set off in search of it.

Is that a trunk? No, it's the elephants. Is that a leaf? No, it's the monkeys. Will the animals manage to find their habitat?
