A victim less vulnerable than it seems, capable of turning the tables. A look at a group of teens that questions junior high power dynamics.

Eleonore went missing in the night. No one's really surprised. Certainly not Clara, who saw and heard everything. When camp began, Lilas and her posse picked Eleonore as their target. They started calling her Babar, after the elephant, then pushed her around, mistreated her, and made sure her life was a living hell. Clara watched them play their cruel games, but didn't stop them, or speak up. Like most people at camp, she even got used to them going after that poor girl. She saw and heard everything. And now... Eleonore is missing.
