A deep dive into the origins of Art Brut that merges the lives and works of the main leaders of this interesting and singular movement.

There is art produced by the "mentally ill," and then there are outsider artists: fabulous creators. Explore the individual mythologies of 7 iconic artists: Henry Darger, Carlo Zinelli, Madge Gill, Aloïse Corbaz, Adolf Wölfli, Jean Perdrizet, and Mary T. Smith. Oriol Malet's clever drawings transform page after page to tell us about each artist, their style and world. This surprising guided tour pays homage to Art Brut and invites us to discover how singularly it has influenced pop culture.
