Want a better understanding of bipolar disorders? Try this book: so entertaining and thoroughly researched it's like a public service!

Some people have dogs, cats, or goldfish. Lou has cyclothymia: a mood disorder of the bipolar variety, which appears to her in the form of a little fox. What do you do when you discover a strange animal in your brain? Can you tame it? And how can you be happy when you have to live with such an unpredictable creature?
