

The Illusion of Green Finance

Authors: Alain Grandjean - Julien Lefournier

Publisher : Éditions de l'Atelier

Category : Humanities and Non-Fiction

Genres : Economics

Keywords : Economics - Energy transition - Environment - Money

Alain Grandjean and Julien Lefournier interrogate the promise and mechanisms of green finance, shining a light on the dead end behind the illusions.

Can finance save the climate? The proliferation of "responsible" assets meant to promote energy transition leads us to believe we can "give money meaning." This book provides an in-depth analysis of a rising phenomenon in order to deconstruct a widespread narrative in an educational yet rigorous manner.
