The intimate contemporary tale of a forty-something father and his five-year-old daughter exploring the creative process of making art.

It's been five years already since Élisabeth was born! One night, because there are no books of fairy tales in reach for putting his daughter to sleep, Fabien makes up a fantastical tale with her.

Chance events over the next few days bring the adventure they created together to mind on multiple occasions. Fabien knows well they're just coincidences, but chooses to see them as a sign that he must change his life...

An intimate contemporary story in which the conversations between a father in his forties and his daughter change the way we look at the world around us.
