10 questions and 4 activities to help children understand the rules of the road, why they exist, and why they must be followed.

A book to answer children's questions about the rules of the road: can I do whatever I want on the road? What are all those colorful signs and white lines? Why do I have to keep my eyes and ears open? What do I do when I see an accident? In the activities section, practice controlling your bike, learn about signs with a memory game, find out about first aid, and check your knowledge of the rules of the road.
