Lies from the past always have consequences on the present.

In an independent Victorian Scotland, Ava's family has climbed the social ladder by selling their services as mediums to the nobility. Several generations of mediums... or frauds? Because only Ava truly possesses the gift. When the heir to the throne is murdered, they are tasked with identifying the guilty party. And they only have 10 days, otherwise the Queen will dispose of these upstarts for good. With the clock ticking, the prince's ghost appears, hellbent on unearthing some familial secrets...
