When Alex's father wakes up from a coma, his family is no longer together. So Alex comes up with a crazy idea to hide the truth.

Good news! Alex's dad has woken up from his coma. Bad news... The doctors have only given him a few months to live. And in the meantime, everything has changed: his wife left him for his best friend, his son Tony is now Tanya, his eldest daughter Myriam is in prison for armed robbery, and his beloved mother is dead! Alex wants to spare his dad the pain, so he pretends that nothing has changed. He even casts an actress to play his grandmother! But his plan could backfire at any moment...
