An exceptional glimpse at the White House "from the inside" by a former AFP correspondent during the presidential terms of Obama, Trump, and Biden.

Jérôme Cartillier was the AFP correspondent for the White House. A privileged observer during the presidential terms of Obama, Trump, and Biden, he worked mere feet away from the Oval Office, and sometimes even next to the President aboard Air Force One. This book is a unique occasion to recount tales from the corridors of the most closely watched political institution in the world.
