"A splendid ode to nature and polar animals, with breathtakingly beautiful collage and cut paper illustrations."

When people think of polar animals, they think of polar bears, seals, and emperor penguins, never suspecting that this is an extremely rich biosphere full of highly varied inhabitants, big and small, on the ice, underwater, or in the air. Set out on a voyage of discovery and learn about these incredible species: the snowy owl, the narwhal, the arctic hare, the Greenland shark.... Soon they'll have no secrets from you. In a vibrant tale punctuated with fact, Véronique Joffre depicts 19 different inhabitants of the icy reaches.
