Moving from one place to another isn't easy for a child!

Gustave is very sad he has to move! Getting a bigger room isn't even enough to console him. When he claims he's forgotten his stuffed animal in their old apartment, his older sister Mila, who understands his grief, decides to help. In the building at 17 Innocent Street, people are happy to rub shoulders, and life is in full swing. Neighbors bond, and children have adventures big and small. And the funniest escapade of all is meeting Dr. Cat, who runs a medical clinic in the building!

"And... Just Like That!" is a collection co-developed by renowned psychotherapist Catherine Dolto and Colline Faure-Poirée.
