This series tells the life stories of great, inspiring figures who left their mark on history!

Learn how Pelé left his mark on soccer history! Little Edson was born in Brazil into a poor family and had no choice but to work after school. But his father had handed down a dream: becoming a professional soccer player. With training and a lot of perseverance, Pelé drew the eyes of great coaches, including the coach of Brazil's national team, then en route to the legendary 1958 World Cup.
