Women's soccer, in ways no one's ever talked about it before!

Sonia Bompastor belongs to an elite group, up there with Zidane and Ancelotti. Trained in Clairefontaine, she won the UEFA League of Champions in 2011 and 2012 as captain of Olympique Lyonnais. In 2021, she became the first woman to coach the club, before winning the trophy again in 2022. An historic first: a female European champion as player and coach. Bompastor was a pioneer, fueled by uncompromising passion and a demanding vision of soccer.
