When tradition and ambition kill love...

Boussoura and Seini are a modern couple living a happy, monogamous, Western-style life in Yaoundé. They are in their 50s and have been married for 25 years. Seini is a doctor who is close to his patients and plans to open his own clinic. Known for his altruism and kindness, he is a loving father, devoted to his children, and a caring, supportive husband. Boussoura is a literature professor. Their four children have gone to school, were able to pursue their studies, and built businesses. Until the day everything changes... when Seini is caught up in his past and his ambition.
