The poignant tale of the life of Chuna Bajtszok, shot dead by firing squad at age 20, a symbol of the Jewish and Communist Resistance.

"My beloved parents, I will soon be executed, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. I was informed of this earlier and I, along with my comrades, await our final moments with great calm [...] I sincerely request that if you want to fulfill my final wish, do not mourn me [...] for it is against what I believe in [...] VIVE LA FRANCE."
