Dive into the heart of Greek mythology and uncover the timeless values of a true hero!

After 20 long years of war, Ulysses is finally returning home. But on the way, distant smoke catches his attention and that of his companions. They decide to sail towards this unknown land, never suspecting for a second that incredible adventures await them...

In this action-packed story, masterfully illustrated by Thomas Baas, children meet the iconic Ulysses and set off with him to meet the famous Cyclops! In doing so, they will discover the meaning of the words courage, ingenuity, and hero!
