He's a ghost who's been dead for 100 years. She's the first person who can see him. Could they possibly have a future together?

After moving from sunny Provence to gray Lille, Charlie struggles to adjust to her new life... until she meets Hadrien, the charming, mysterious boy in her art class. But Hadrien hides a dark secret: he's a ghost, murdered a century ago in Charlie's new home. As whispers haunt her room, Charlie's love grows stronger – strong enough to make her risk everything, even her own happiness.
