A fresh take on a modern Dracula, freely adapted from Bram Stoker's work.

Tired of being feared and loathed, Dracula has decided to give up evil for good. In his Carpathian castle, he devotes himself to his new passion: sewing. Before long, news of his talents escapes the thick stone walls, and Mina, a young journalist, arrives at his doorstep. It's love at first sight. Mina moves into the castle, and they proceed to create a timeless collection and share a life of joy for over 60 years. But while Dracula is immortal, Mina is not... and her time is running out...
