A cheeky and light-hearted trip around the world to learn all about good manners!

Do you call strangers by their first name? Do you blow your nose in public? Good manners take time to learn and they're often terribly boring... unless you talk about them in a deliciously fun book!

In this guide to etiquette, each question is explored in three steps: a quick trip around the world on the chosen topic; a funny spotlight on another country; and testimonials from children all over the globe. Because politeness doesn't look the same everywhere...
