An illustrated atlas to discover the world and learn to read maps starting at age 8!

An illustrated atlas for discovering the world and traveling, reading and understanding maps, learning geographical landmarks, and mastering how to use an atlas. This book takes young readers on a journey of discovery – from Earth's place in the universe to its climates, and from continents to their countries. "Zoom" pages allow curious minds to delve deeper into big questions. For example, what is jet lag? How can we protect our water resources? How are dunes formed in the desert?
