The adventures of a little boy captured by a crew of pirates led by the dreadful Captain Brett, a mysterious character with a skull for a face...

A boy is sent by his parents to spend the summer with his uncle. Left to his own devices in an unfamiliar town, he explores the streets, discovers a large river, gets trapped in an ambush, and is taken prisoner by pirates! Against his will, he becomes part of this criminal crew... Full of action and plot twists, this story also raises questions of good and evil. World-acclaimed author Blexbolex once again ventures into new artistic and narrative territory with this genre book.
