A book to read quickly, or a book to savor slowly...

"Will you read me this book?"

"Yes, but quickly then."

And the story unfolds in the blink of an eye, without seeing any of the images. But it's a waste of time to not take time. To understand everything, you must start over from the beginning. Slowly, calmly. Taking the time to see everything, look at everything, savor everything. Realizing that happiness is at the heart of the storyline, at the center of the narrative, to read and reread. And when the story is finished, simply start over.
