Her name is Wreck Bam-Bam, and her brother is Good-for-Nothing. Like all the other children their age, their parents obeyed the gray screens and abandoned them. Like all the other children their age, they boarded a bus headed toward an unknown destination, across a ravaged country. But unlike all the other children their age, Wreck Bam-Bam and Good-for-Nothing don't like to blindly obey, don't completely trust adults, and carry within them two small seeds: revolt and hope.
