A hilarious and impertinent collection of short sketches.

Murmuring, def:

1. The soft continuous sound of human voices.

2. Several people quietly expressing an opinion.

In Maëlle Reat's illustrations, murmurings rarely go unnoticed. Whether emanating from those at the bar or on the terrace, they rise above the general background noise.

A hilarious and impertinent collection of short sketches, Murmures de cafés showcases the author's talent for capturing juicy morsels of conversations and the burlesque side of social interactions across all ages.
