A sharp, intelligent political fable with stunning artwork.

The animals have scored a small but crucial victory: the tyrant Silvio has been forced to call for a vote, and his grip on power may finally be slipping. At the Castle, the presidential campaign is in full swing. But for the ruthless bull, no trick is too dirty. The Daisy Movement is more determined than ever to expose the injustices animals still face and depose the dictator once and for all. Will Miss B., Caesar, and Azelard overthrow the merciless Silvio? Is freedom truly within paw's reach?
