An extraordinary love that unfolds with the seasons.

Lina, a painter, retreats to an isolated estate to reconnect with her art and heal from her arranged marriage. There, she meets Parsley, a being that is half-man and half-horse, who is curious about the human world. As their bond grows, Parsley learns to speak, feel, and express emotions. Although their connection is genuine, Parsley's growing obsession with human traits eventually turns toxic. This time, Lina will not crumble under the pain: she will transform it into a masterpiece.
