Emmanuel Falque's philosophical thinking explained in a lively dialogue enriched with biographical anecdotes.

Through dialogue, this text offers a lively introduction to the thought of Emmanuel Falque. Through biography and conversation, it traces a non-linear intellectual journey shaped by movement between philosophy and theology. Once a struggling student, Falque became a philosopher after a formative spiritual encounter. His thinking unfolds as a dynamic process of questioning and tension, where philosophy is both an engagement and a responsibility – a never-ending "loving struggle" in the search for truth.
