

Date : 07/05/2025

Pages : 208

Format cm : 16 x 22

Prix : 21.0

EAN : 9782386360213

A Man Named Louis Wolfson

---

Author: Étienne Fabre

Publisher : Séguier

Category :

Genres : Biography/Memoirs

Keywords : Schizophrenia - Literature - United States of America

---

"Louis Wolfson is the author of one of those rare bodies of work that can alter our perception of the world." ~ Paul Auster

In 1970, Gallimard published a novel that landed like a bomb: The Schizophrenic Sensorial Epileptic and Foreign Languages. Its author? Louis Wolfson, an American and a schizophrenic. The radical newness, the blinding energy of his writing fascinated the era's biggest names: Deleuze, Queneau, Sartre, Beauvoir, Foucault, Auster, and even Nobel laureate J.M.G. Le Clézio. All of them greeted the book as an extraordinary masterpiece. But shortly after this first book was published, Wolfson vanished from the scene, appearing only on rare occasions. The wildest rumors made the rounds about him. Étienne Fabre has set out to tell his story.

---