Love at first sight and passionate love. A locked-room adventure in the great outdoors during the pandemic. A sensational debut novel from a talented author!

Gabriel is still madly in love with his ex-partner, Eden. When she asks him to take their son, Tom, to a country house she rented during pandemic lockdown, he grumbles but obeys. A nurse too busy saving lives, Eden is slow to join them. Gabriel and Tom find themselves alone in a strange place where they must make do. But in this house, objects mysteriously shift places, strange rubbing sounds turn into tears in the attic. Gabriel has always known it: ghosts are real. Love at first sight, too.
